Sir or Madam:

Andrew Corporation is the assignee of the entire right, title and interest in this reissue application, which is based on Patent No. 5,917,455, issued June 29, 1999, by virtue of a chain of title from the inventor of the subject matter disclosed and claimed in this application as set forth hereafter. The assignment documents evidence the transfer from Tan D. Huynh and Peter Mailandt (inventors) to Allen Telecom Group, Inc., then from Allen Telecom Group, Inc. to Allen Telecom Inc. (via merger and change of name), then from Allen Telecom Inc. to Adirondacks, LLC, then from Adirondacks, LLC to Allen Telecom LLC (via merger name change), and then from Allen Telecom LLC to Andrew Corporation.

I have reviewed all the documents in the chain of title of this application and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, title is in the above-referenced assignee. I aver that I am empowered to sign this document on behalf of Andrew Corporation. I understand that Andrew Corporation also assents to this reissue application.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made upon information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Reissue Application Declaration by the Assignee

At least one error upon which the subject non-broadening reissue application is based is described below:

We believe that the original Patent No. 5,917,455 (The '455 Patent) is partly inoperative or invalid by reason of a defective specification. I further believe that the '455 patent is partly inoperative or invalid due to an error which was committed without any deceptive intent. This reissue application is based on the error that, for example, issued claim 1 contained in the original '455 patent is defective in that it claims:

1. An antenna assembly having an operating frequency and a vertical radiation pattern with a main lobe axis defining a downtilt angle with respect to the earth's surface, the antenna assembly comprising:

a plurality of antenna means in first, second, and third antenna groups disposed along a backplane, the backplane having a longitudinal axis along which the antenna means are disposed;

phase adjustment means disposed between the second and third antenna groups configured to simultaneously advance a phase angle of a signal to one of said second and third antenna groups and delay the phase angle of said signal to the other of said second and third antenna groups;

such that adjustment of the phase adjustment means results in variation of the vertical radiation pattern downtilt angle.

instead of claiming, as stated in claim 1 as amended below and submitted herewith:

1. (once amended) An antenna assembly having an operating frequency and a vertical radiation pattern with a main lobe axis defining a downtilt angle with respect to the earth's surface, the antenna assembly comprising:

a plurality of antenna means in first, second, and third antenna groups disposed along a backplane, the backplane having a longitudinal axis along which the antenna means are disposed;

phase adjustment means disposed between the first [second] and third antenna groups configured to simultaneously advance a phase angle of a signal to one of said first [second] and third antenna groups and delay the phase angle of said signal to the other of said first [second] and third antenna groups;
